

ESL/ENGLISH HOST-TEACHERS

Live in Languages Ltd. is an English language school specializing in one-to-one home tutoring, and we are looking for host-teachers in the USA, Canada, and the UK. Students of English from abroad (serious adult learners) are totally immersed in the language as they live and study in the home of a host teacher.

A host-teacher needs to:

- have ESL or English teaching credentials (or equivalent experience)
- be able to give 15-25 lessons (50 minutes each) one-to-one instruction per week
- accommodate students, so having a pleasant guest room available is necessary (providing full board accommodation is required)

Host-teachers work for us on a self-employed, part-time basis. Benefits include:

- the flexibility of accepting clients from us if/when convenient (typically, for 1-4 weeks at a time)
- remuneration of $750-$1020 per week
- the cultural exchange and learning experienced when accommodating international guests

Please email your resume and provide a brief description of the guest accommodation you offer to James Willcox at james@liveinlanguages.com
